

Draft structure to accompany advert
for DCS
29/04/20

NOTE

The Directorate is currently undergoing a period of significant change. This service has been created from a previous People's Directorate. This has involved establishing new structures and reporting arrangements. More needs to be done to finalise these arrangements, in particular some services such as complaints and commissioning have been retained in Adult Services. This is currently under review.